

Grant Maker Overview

AmpliFund is the leading purpose-built grant management software empowering Grant Makers to manage every phase of the grant lifecycle from application through closeout. With the tools, resources, and exceptional support you get from AmpliFund, you can create capacity for your team, drive compliance, and realize the full potential of your funding.

Organizations are distributing and managing more funding than ever and don't have the resources to keep up with the volume of applicants, awards, and compliance requirements.

You need a partner in your corner that understands federal guidance, and one that can give you the resources you need to manage the complexity of your portfolio.

That's why AmpliFund was created by grants professionals, for grants professionals, and designed to manage every aspect of your funding with a single solution.

AmpliFund helps you be a more efficient, transparent, and effective steward of the funds you've been trusted with.

AmpliFund Grant Maker is the solution

In the past, audit compliance was a challenge with key documents and information scattered across an array of spreadsheets, emails, and file folders.

With AmpliFund's simple interface and great organizational tools, it is all now housed in one central point. Our auditors loved it!”
